OPENING OF THE SALESWOMEE'S FAIR.

F The Saleswomen's Fair, whichwill open at the Metropolican Opera House this evening, will be attended by Governor Hale and staff and other distinguished guests. The nine tables will be presided over by well-known ladies and doubtless the deserving object of the entertainment will attract a large throng.

SUSPECTED CONTRACT LABORERS RELEASED.

Four steerage passengers on the steamer Pennand were detained at Castle Garden Saturday at the request of the Knights of Labor. It was asserted that they were brought here in violation of the law prohibiting the importation of contract labor. They were glass blowers from Antwerp, and were going to Kent, Ohio. The names of the men were Clement and Anthony Dubos, Arthur I umbech and Henry Le Nable. They were permitted to go yesterday, there being no evidence of a contract with the Kent, Onio, glass factories.

BROOKLYN.

James W. Wilson, who was before Police Justice Walsh last week upon the charge of threatening to sheet Dr. Ous C. Flick, who objected to Wilson's attentions to his step-daughter, has married the girl, despite her parents' protests. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Mr. McHamara, of the Reformed Catholic Church.

In a quarrel early yesterday morning, at Scholes and Ewen sts., Louis Dresch, age twenty, of No. 254 Stage-st, was shot in the face. Three other boysengaged in the quarrel were arrested, but it could not be ascertained which one fired the pistol. Dresch's wound is not severe.

NEWS FROM THE SUBURBS.

JERSEY CITY.

An old man, who gave his name as Charles Bebeck and said that he lived at No. 66 Washingtonst. New-York, was found on Saturday night in a vacant lot in Second-st., near Grove, dying of exposure and starvation. He was removed to the Charity Hospital.

NEWARK.

Mrs. Meta Weichhold, age twenty-four years, the wite of Hermann Weichhold a merchant tailor living at No. 52 Hay-st., committed suicide early yesterday morning by drowning herself in a cistern. The woman, had been depressed in mind for some time. Late in the night her husband awoke and missed her from the bed. He hunted through the house and then went into the yard, where he perceived that the cover of the cistern had been removed. Looking into the cistern he saw the dead body of his wife. The woman leaves, several children.

NEW-JERSEY.

NEW-JERSEY.

IRVINGTON.—Mrs. Edwis Van Honten, who was gored by a cow a week ago, died on Friday night of blood poisoning. The wound inflicted by the cow's nern was in the abdomen and was about six inches long and two inches deep. Mrs. Van Houten leaves a husband and several chidren.

Hobok N.—Theodore Krewolf and John J. Pettengill, who are beheved to be passers of counterfeit money, were arrested on Saturday night. It is alleged that they have been doing an extensive business in all parts of hudson County, They were traced to Hoboken by Special Agents Drummond and Burnett. Since their arrest they have been identified by Bernard Schmidt, a storekeeper at Faurth and Bloomfield sts., and other storekeepers as men who had passed counterfeit $10 bills on them. Pettengill is well known to the New-York police. He was suspected of being concernes in the Manhattan Eank robbery, but there was not sufficient evidence to convict him. The prisoners will be arraigned before United States Commissioner Muirheau to-day.

ROCKLAND COUNTY.

ROCKLAND COUNTY.

Nyack.—A panie at the Casino skating rink was narrowly averted Saturday night at a performance by a bicyclist, when the building was crowded, with two hundred women present. A gang of roughs, generally supposed to have been sent by the inquer sellers, forced an entrance, assaulted the ticket taker and succeeded in bringing about a free fight. The wemen and girls were terrified when revolvers were flourished and the band made hasty preparations to leave. A deacon with bailed face was heard to murnur: "I always knew these rinks were ungodly places. I only came here to see what it was like, and I wish I'd stayed home." The fight lasted ten minutes.

LONG ISLAND.

LONG ISLAND.

The friends of Garret Maybee, whose wife and daughter were the victims of the marderer Rugg, and who himself was brutally assaulted by the negro, has for some time been seriously ill, and his friends fear that, like Mrs. Townsend, another victim of the negro fiend, he will die before the murderer expiates his crime upon the gallows. Mr. Maybee is over seventy years of age, crippled and blind, and has never fully recovered from the effect of the blows inflicted on him by kugz. Mr. Maybee has been confined to his bed for the last two weeks at the home of his daughter, Mrs. W. H. Simonson.

STATEN ISLAND.

STATEN ISLAND.

SOUTHFIELD.—The Staten Is and police vesterday arrested John Farrell on the charge of passing counterfeit money and assaulting Policeman Moore. The latter was informed that two men were passing counterfeit money on sterekeepers in Southfield. Policeman Moore, in citzens' dress and unarmed, went to Eichmeyer's liquer store and found the two men there. They had passed a wortaless $10 bill on Mr. Eichmeyer. The two men set upon Moore and beat him severely. They then made their escepe from the saleon. Farrell was subsequently arrested and taken to Police Headquarters at Stapleton, where he was fully identified by Peliceman Moore. The police are escribing for the other man. Farrell and his companion also passed a counterfeit $10 on Henry Holt.

THEY DON'T WANT HOEXTER ARRESTED. THEY DON'T WANT HOEXTER ARRESTED.

In regard to a dispaten from Quebec yesterday, stating that A. Hoexter, shirt and collar manufact urer of this city, who disappeared lately owing more than $200,000, was in that city and that excetives there were awaiting an order for his arrest, Robert Pinkerton, of Pinkerton's Detective Agency, said yester day: "All I know about the matter is that the day before yesterday I received a telegram from Alexander Cheveaux and Detective George Skeington, of Quebec, telling me that Heexter was there and asking if he was wanted. I found that the parties interested here, among whom is the assignee, did not care to have him arrested and I sent back an answer to that effect."
